

Financially prepare for student life

No matter your story — whether you're the first in your family to earn a college degree, you're following in a family tradition, or you're attending an HBCU or Hispanic-serving school — CollegeSTEPS® has the resources to help you plan and pay for college, earn and manage money on campus, understand credit, and more.

- Budgeting basics for college students: Learn how to create a simple money plan for school with a free worksheet and video of advice from students like you.
- Scholarship Resource Center: Access billions of dollars in higher education funding, plus the strategies and tools to help you find them.
- Free webinar series: Take part in no-cost, on-demand webinars to help you while you're in college and after, including the College Financial Foundations series and the Beyond College series.
- Personalize your experience: We know each student's college journey is unique. That's why you can customize your homepage with the topics that interest you.
- The Get College ReadySM planning guide: This interactive workbook is packed with financial information and guidance to help high schoolers and their families navigate the college planning process.

Subscribe to the CollegeSTEPS newsletter for the latest and most relevant information you need throughout the year on planning and paying for college, earning and managing money, understanding credit, and more.

Build financial skills for college and life at wellsfargo.com/collegesteps